

articles foreign 18/04/2019

Yasser by Written : souls of independence the is independence Real Ashkar

What is the meaning of “independence” if it leads to being crushed to death under your own home by your own government, if it means being forced into leaving behind everything you have ever known just to stay alive, if it means spending the rest of your life without limbs or with permanent disabilities as is the case for millions of Syrians injured by bombs dropped by men with no conscience?

has Day National Syrian but civilization of cradle the in formed history rich a share Syrians .tyranny Assad of decades after importance its lost a ,Day Independence Syrian celebrate to continues regime Assad the ,17 April ,Wednesday mandate French the of end the since years 73 commemorates year this that holiday national .independence full of proclamation s'country the and along occupation French under priorities were culture and education that is reality sad The Syrians that occupation French the during was It .infrastructure s'country the improving with from ran once that lines railway of development the and schools many of building the saw .Turkey into and Arabia Saudi to Syria through Lebanon .allies his and Assad of bombs the by destroyed been has infrastructure s'Syria of much Today .operational longer no are or destroyed been have schools ,country the of areas many In The .survive to merely struggling are people the ,culture and education on focusing of Instead in but ,expensive only not is cooking and heating for fuel and skyrocketed has living of cost the to done been has that damage the is crisis fuel the than bigger even But .supply short .people Syrian the of minds and hearts Syrian of memories fond last our us of many for and out way its on is regime Assad The Independence Day are connected to the efforts of simple people whose wish was to unmask the reality of Assad occupation in 2011. crushed being means it if west the from occupiers foreign from “independence” is good What in interested only dictator a by in brought occupiers foreign of heels boot the under of out population the half driving means it if even country the on stranglehold his maintaining with along spirits their crush to take will it as Syrians many as killing and homes own their ?dignity and freedom for struggle their ,Day Independence Syrian as 17 April celebrate to continues regime Assad the if even So will freedom or justice ,independence of meaning the known not have who us of those been has country our day the until celebration Day Independence Syrian own our withhold his under Syria in flourished have who terrorists the all and Assad of clutches the from freed .watch from freedom real a be must there and souls of independence the is independence Real Syrian celebrate truly can country beloved our before within from oppression and tyranny .Day Independence